RATES OF BANK—ROAD & INSURANCE STOCKS—BALTIMORE, Jan. 29, 1822.

Cohen's Lottery & Exchange Office.

HOC SIGNO FORTUNA.

BALTIMORE, WEDNESDAY, January 30, 1822.

No time to be lost.

In three weeks from next Friday, will commence the drawing of the splendid and patriotic scheme of the WASHINGTON MONUMENT LOTTERY, when the first drawn number will be entitled to the handsome premium of THREE THOUSAND DOLLARS.—Orders are now pouring in from every section of the Union, which, while they evince the popularity of the Lottery, also shew that adventurers are not unmindful of the superior advantages enjoyed by those who purchase early, as the first drawn 3,000 blanks are entitled to Ten Dollars each!

The same punctual and prompt attention is paid to all orders addressed to COHEN'S OFFICE, as if the application was made personally, either for whole tickets or shares. The following prices in the MONUMENT Lottery will continue but a short time longer.

Whole Tickets, . . . $10 | Quarters, . . . $2 50
Halves, 5 | Eighths, 1 25
Direct all letters (post paid) to J. I. COHEN, Jr.

Secretary to the Managers, Baltimore.

For the satisfaction of adventurers in every part of the Union, the Managers have determined to publish in this paper, the official lists of each drawing of the Washington Monument Lottery, and which will include the numbers both of the Blanks and the Prizes, as well as the situation of the scheme from time to time. This will be a two-fold advantage to the distant adventurer, because the holder of a small prize will be thereby informed of it, and will enable him to send it on immediately for renewal; while on the other hand, the adventurer whose number may draw a blank will also be notified of it, and can if he thinks proper make a new investment, should the state of the wheel at that time justify it.

Appointments by the Governor and Council of Maryland, Jan. 21st.

JAMES L. HAWKINS,
NATHANIEL F. WILLIAMS, } Esquires
JAMES B. RINGGOLD, to be Commissioners of Lotteries for the year 1822, in conformity to the Act of Assembly.

CLAIMS UNDER THE SPANISH TREATY

A letter received from a source that can be depended upon, says the N. Y. Post, contains the following interesting and important information respecting American claims, under the Spanish Treaty, as determined upon by the commissioners.

1st. The commissioners under the Spanish treaty, in session at Washington, have determined that claims originating in contract with the government of Spain, or the colonies, for supplies furnished, do not constitute a claim under the treaty.

2d. All claims arising on account of vessels captured by French privateers, carried into Spanish ports, and afterwards condemned by a French tribunal, sitting in a French territory rejected.

3d. They have rejected all claims for seizures made by French authorities at St. Sebastians, and other parts in the South of Spain.

4th. They have also rejected all claims for consequential damages.

[By the above decision, the claims of Messrs. Meade and Robinson are excluded.]

From Havana.—By the schr. Sarah Ann, Capt. Budd, arrived at Charleston on the 21st inst. in 10 days from Havana, the editor of the Courier, has been favoured with the papers of that place, to the 7th inst. and with the perusal of Commercial Letters of the same date.

Information of the capture of four piratical schooners, by the U. S. brig Enterprise, was received at Havana, by the schr. Mechanic, Forsyth, put in there on her passage from Aux Cayes to this port—he was boarded by the Enterprise, and received the particulars from Lieut. K. as already published. A brig supposed to be the Enterprise, was off the Moro, when the Sarah Ann came out.

Information had also reached Havana, that Com Chaytor, of the Patriot service, had captured a large piratical schooner, off the Hole in the Wall, and hung up 75 of her crew, upon the Berry Islands, as an example to others, engaged in piratical pursuits.

U. S. Ship Wasp.—The survivors, heirs, and representatives of the officers and crew of the late ship Wasp, Capt. Blakely, are notified in the National Intelligencer, that their claims will be settled on application to the Secretary of the Navy, transmitting a certificate, signed by a Judge of some Court of Record, in the state or territory where they reside, authenticating their right to the same.

Tobacco.—Within the last week, about 330 hds. have been sold for exportation. The quantity of red Tobacco remaining unsold is considerable; but as the demand for Spring shipments is nearly supplied, and as the inferior kinds are almost entirely neglected, we do not expect much more will be done in this article until the month of March or April, when we may expect supplies from the new crop.—Telegraph.

Bank of the United States.—In a late judicial decision it appears to be the opinion of Judge Washington, that the Bank of the United States, in certain cases, has no right to refuse the payment of notes cut in two, though both parts be not produced. "Cutting a bank note into two parts (says the Judge,) does not discharge the Bank from the debt of which the note was but the evidence: nor does it even impair the evidence, if, by uniting the parts, the contents of the entire note can be made out. If one of the parts should be lost, or destroyed, the debt would be no more, than if the entire note had been lost. In both cases the owner must resort to secondary evidence, and is bound to prove that the note did once exist, that it is lost or destroyed, and that he is the true and bona fide owner of the debt. If one part only of the note be lost, the difficulty which the real owner of it has to encounter, in proving his right to the debt, is diminished."

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 25,

Awful Fire.—Yesterday morning about 2 o'clock the Orphans' Asylum, in this city, was discovered to be on fire. This neat building, the residence of near 100 orphan children, was soon reduced to ashes, the poor little innocents bereaved of a home—and, alas! twenty-three of them have perished in the flames.

Since the destruction of the Theatre in Richmond, there has not occurred, in the United States, a conflagration so heart-rending, as that which has taken place. It appears that a servant, wishing to dry some articles of clothing in the kitchen, made up a fire in the stove around which they were placed and retired to bed, and it is supposed that the fire was originated in this manner.

Butcher, the watchman of the ward in which the Asylum stood, was first drawn to the building, and rescued several of the children from the second story: Nutter, the watchman of the adjoining ward was next on the ground. The latter attempted to ascend the stairs alone, but was driven back by fear of the smoke and flames, which were bursting out. He went up, however, in company with the other, and found on the stairs, several of the orphans, whom they extricated. Nutter mounted again to the floor of the second story, and found himself enveloped in a suffocating smoke—he groped among the beds, which were empty—and then retreated through a window over the Portico at the back door. When on the Portico, he received into his arms, a child from the hands of Butcher, and descended with his burden by means of one of the columns of the Portico.

By this time the flames had spread and raged with so much fury, that access by the stairs was no longer possible. Another watchman informs us, that about this crisis he heard screams, and coughing, as if from the third story. Before the engines could be ready to play, the interior of the edifice was wholly on fire. The scarcity of water, and the extreme severity of the cold, which froze almost immediately what could be procured, formed distressing impediments to the zeal of the Hose and Engine Associations. We are told that the great exertions of the Phoenix Hose Company contributed chiefly to the preservation of the Widow's Asylum, the roof of which they found in flames.

The cost of the Orphan's Asylum, was, we learn, $22,250—and the value of the furniture, clothing, &c. destroyed is estimated at $1000. The property was insured at $6000 only.

Mint of the United States.—There have been struck during 1821, 34,641, half eagles, 6,448 quarter eagles, 1,305,597 half dollars, 216,851 quarter dollars, 1,186,512 dimes, and 389,000 cents; in all 3,139,249 pieces of coin, of the value of 1,018 977 dollars 45 cents.

On Sunday night last, the store of John and William Toukin, at Carpenter's Landing, N. J. was robbed of goods to the amount of $300. One of the robbers having taken some Antimonial wine in mistake, they were traced to a neighbouring wood, where they had deposited the goods, which were recovered, and the thieves thus fortunately detected. They are now in goal.
